For the Foodie Within Temptations Pavilion

If you fancy honing your skills in the kitchen, enjoy cooking demonstrations throughout the day from Temptations Pavilion located in the heart of festivities. Master Chef Kate Rodrigues will appear at 11:05am and 1:15pm whipping up a storm with her speciality in Indian cuisine. An inaugural cooking competition will see local businesses battle it out with a signature dish for the title of Toodyay's Top Chef presented by Avalon Homestead.

Bendigo Bank's Duidgee Diversion

Food is not the only thing on offer during the Festival. For time off the food track, there is plenty of children's entertainment and activities to enjoy in Duidgee Park. Hey Presto Clown will weave his magic for a show packed full of entertainment at 10:30am and 1:30pm from Duidgee Park. Hey Presto will deliver his antics throughout the day with magic spells and balloon twisting.

The older children can try their luck on a bucking Shaun the Sheep, or enjoy the excitement of an Airborne Adventure, whilst for the little ones, there is everybody's favourite - bouncy castle. Add face painters and Old McDonald's Farm with a furry friend or two and you have a day sure to please the fussiest of festival-goers.

Toodyay's Top Chef presented by Avalon Homestead

For the first time in the Festival of Food history, local businesses will battle it out from Temptations Pavilion for the title of Toodyay's Top Chef. The judging panel consisting of Shire of Toodyay's Acting CEO Simon Fraser, local businessman Brian Dawes of Cola Cafe, and Master Chef Kate Rodrigues will oversee the demonstrations and mark on taste, entertainment value and presentation.

Bio - Kate Rodrigues

The youngest contestant from the popular TV show Master Chef in 2009, Kate is a star when it comes to desserts and pastry. Kate began cooking at 8 years of age, making her first apple pie from scratch. Since then she has been experimenting with flavours, putting her own spin on classic French desserts and British puddings. When she's not doing desserts, spicy Portuguese-influenced curry is on the menu for Kate. Kate's passion is food and she loves teaching others how to cook.
